To Michael Powell and the members of the FCC:
The best thing that ever happened to me and my family, in the realm of entertainment, has been XM. why?

On ALL other stations, my kids are regularly pounded by disgraceful ads -- ads that are sexual in content or innuendo. Forget the fact that some of the ads are just plain offensive -- what really gets me and my wife is that we have NO CONTROL what comes over the airwaves.

The same holds true for "disc jockeys". Even the nice ones love to play the sexual innuendo game.

That's why we love XM radio -- no ads, no offensive deejays. xm has made my family happier and better. How many products can make that claim?
